

CORRECTION: New Fraud and Abuse Accreditation Decision Rule

When new accreditation decision rule CON08 was published in the August 2009 issue of Perspectives on page 10, we inadvertently omitted some language. Decision rule CON08 can be invoked in the potential case of either fraud or abuse.

The correct language is in the underlined text below.

We regret this error.

Official Publication of Accreditation Decision Rule Correction

Corrected Language for Decision Rule CON08

CON08 The Joint Commission is persuaded that credible evidence has been identified to form a reasonable conclusion that the nature and circumstances of a finding appear to indicate possible fraud or abuse has occurred.