

Behavioral Health Care Conference

October 10-11 | Rosemont, IL

This two-day conference offers those who provide care across all behavioral health care settings with new tools and resources, practical strategies, and the opportunity to connect with colleagues and experts.

Who Should Attend

Join us for a two-day strategy-based conference designed to provide you with practical solutions and implementation tips that can be adapted and applied to your organization using The Joint Commission's Behavioral Health Care requirements. Professionals in roles responsible for accreditation-related activities should attend, including:

- Psychologists
- Social Workers
- Counselors
- Nurses
- Administrators
- Quality Improvement
- Risk Management
- Professionals within Community Mental Health Centers
- Facility-based Behavioral Health Care Organizations
- Health care organizations and agencies serving children, youth and families
- Psychiatric and acute care staff of addiction and opioid treatment programs.

What You Will Learn

This two-day educational conference is constructed to provide behavioral health care professionals with key information necessary to navigate challenging standards for achieving and maintaining Joint Commission accreditation.

The Changing Landscape of Behavioral Health Care

Discuss key topics, from measurement-based care and suicide risks, to how the field is evolving, and what you can do to stay on the cutting edge of care.

Three Tracks for Singular Focus

Focus your learning by choosing from three session tracks below to best serve your organization's needs:

- Track A: Behavioral Healthcare for Those Surveyed Under the BHC Accreditation Manual (CAMBHC)
- Track B: Behavioral Healthcare for Those Surveyed Under the Hospital Accreditation Manual (CAMH)
- Track C: Behavioral Healthcare Accreditation Essentials for those New to Accreditation

Objectives

- 1) Increase your knowledge of the political and regulatory activities that are and will be affecting health care organizations.
- 2) Learn the foundational issues of high reliability in behavioral health care.
- 3) Address challenging standards for medication management.
- 4) Discuss and address the most frequently cited non-compliant accreditation standards for 2018 and learn about standards revisions in progress.

Keynote Speaker

Vance Johnson

Community Outreach Spokesperson
Futures Recovery Healthcare
Palm Beach, Florida

In his role as Community Outreach Spokesperson for Futures Recovery Healthcare, Vance Johnson will share his personal journey from addiction to recovery. Former wide receiver for the Denver Broncos, Vance tells his raw and graphic story. He uncovers his own triumphs and tragedies that ultimately led him into a coma. Addiction is a disease and treatment saved his life. His mission is a life-saving one to prevent, inspire and connect people to quality care for the treatment of addictions.
