

2019 Home Care Accreditation Essentials

March 12-13, 2019 | Oakbrook Terrace, IL

Join us to receive hands-on, practical guidance from home care accreditation experts to boost your compliance efforts.

---

Who Should Attend

Join us for a two-day strategy-based seminar designed to provide you with practical solutions and implementation tips that can be adapted and applied to your organization using The Joint Commission's home care requirements. Professionals in roles responsible for accreditation-related activities should attend, including:

- Administrators
- Quality Improvement Leaders
- Risk Managers
- Accreditation Managers
- Medical Directors

What You Will Learn

This program will guide you through all the home care requirements including, the early survey option, the current status of Project REFRESH, a process improvement initiative at The Joint Commission, and the SAFER™ Matrix. Concurrent break out sessions offer a deep dive into requirements relevant to your specific services. Experts will identify the current benefits, trends, and updates reported with the SAFER™ Matrix being used among accredited home care organizations.

Objectives

At the conclusion of this program, you will be able to:

- 1) Recall and manage risk points in the Joint Commission standards and survey processes related to your organization's ongoing survey readiness activities.
- 2) Discuss unique aspects of your organization's service line(s) relevant to accreditation.
- 3) Describe at least two of The Joint Commission's National Patient Safety Goals®.
- 4) Implement strategies and compliance tips for home care accreditation standards, including challenging standards, in your home care organization.
