
2019 Stroke Certification Conference

June 20, 2019 • Oak Brook, IL

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

Track A: Primary Stroke Centers

At the conclusion of this conference, attendees will be able to:

1. Describe the activities involved in the review process for Primary Stroke Centers
2. Summarize the 2019 requirements and the 2018 most frequently cited standards for Primary Stroke Centers
3. Adapt practical strategies and implementation tips that can be applied within their stroke program
4. Discuss the unique aspects of their stroke program
5. Discuss emerging stroke care for patients
6. Discuss the new performance measurement requirements

Track B: Thrombectomy-Capable and Comprehensive Stroke Centers

At the conclusion of this conference, attendees will be able to:

1. Describe the activities involved in the review process for Thrombectomy-Capable and Comprehensive Stroke Centers
2. Summarize the 2019 requirements and the 2018 most frequently cited standards for Thrombectomy-Capable and Comprehensive Stroke Centers
3. Adapt practical strategies and implementation tips that can be applied within their stroke program
4. Discuss the unique aspects of their stroke program
5. Discuss emerging stroke care for patients

Track C: Acute Stroke Ready Hospitals

At the conclusion of this conference, attendees will be able to:

1. Describe the activities involved in the review process for Acute Stroke Ready Hospitals
2. Summarize the 2019 requirements and the 2018 most frequently cited standards for Acute Stroke Ready Hospitals
3. Adapt practical strategies and implementation tips that can be applied within their stroke program
4. Discuss the unique aspects of their stroke program
5. Discuss emerging stroke care for patients